- My first 'annual' walk to raise money for Brain Tumour Research
- Fun walk with participants to be dressed in their PJ's as you will be hopefully dreaming like me that one day their will be a cure for brain tumours
- Achievable distance for any fitness level - wearing your PJ's along the street is the real test
- Please 'help me to help others' and make this the biggest walk specifically for brain tumour research
- It's free to register for the walk we just ask everyone to try and commit to raising at least £100.
